SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. Antonio Parra Velasco, Ecuadoran Ambassador to Venezuela, stated that soon after he became established in Venezuela, he would make a trip to Puerto Rico where he planned to give an anti-U.S. address. Parra, who is well known for his bitter dislike for Americans, said he had been invited by the Iteneo Literary Society of San Juan to deliver the anti-U.S. speech and was gathering reference material for it prior to his departure from Guayaquil. He stated that he would undoubtedly find a sympathetic audience in Puerto Rico.
2. Parra tried to obtain a copy of the book, El Cautiverio de Puerto Rico, (The Captivity of Puerto Rico) from source.
